

WIC GUIDELINES:

The following material from the WIC website will be helpful. Please make sure to check out the website as it is full of help, education and other information. See Main Website: <http://www.awc-ca.com>

“The San Diego WIC program serves pregnant, breastfeeding and postpartum women, infants and children up to 5 years old in low income families. WIC provides free supplemental foods.”

WIC Income Guidelines: WIC does not include Basic Allowance for Housing (BAH) for military families. Pregnant women count as 2 people.

Income Eligibility Guidelines (effective 07/01/19 - 06/30/2020)

	Annually	Monthly	Weekly
Family of 1	$23,107	$1,926	$445
Family of 2	31,284	2,607	602
Family of 3	39,461	3,289	759
Family of 4	47,638	3,970	917
Family of 5	55,815	4,652	1,074
Family of 6	63,992	5,333	1,231
Family of 7	72,169	6,015	1,388
Family of 8	80,346	6,696	1,546
For each add'l family member, add	+ $8,177	+ 682	+ 158

Please note the following -

- * Decimals are rounded to the nearest dollar
- * Pregnant women count as two people

Escondido WIC office locations:

SDSU WIC Program (SDSU: San Diego State University)

1131 East Washington Avenue, Suite K
Escondido, CA 92025

Call for an appointment: 1-888-999-6897

Open Monday-Friday 8:00 am - 5:00 pm

Closed 2nd Friday

Open 2nd Saturday 8:00 am - 4:30 pm

Go to SDSU WIC Program online site for latest detail for eligibility:

SDSU Escondido Office: <https://sdsuwic.org/how-to-apply-for-wic>

NCHS WIC Program:
(NCHS: North County Health Services)
Located in County of San Diego North Inland LiveWell Center

649 West Mission Avenue #7

Escondido, CA 92025

Call for an appointment: 1-888-477-6333

Open Monday-Friday 7:30am – 4:30 pm

Closed for lunch M-F 11:45 am - 12:45 pm

Open one Saturday per month. Call for details.

Go to NCHS WIC Program online site for latest detail for eligibility:

NCHS Escondido Office: <https://m.wic.ca.gov/JoinWIC/IncomeGuidelines.aspx>